

QUARTERLY ISSUES REPORT

WHYY-TV

FOR THE PERIOD OF APRIL 1ST, 2010 THROUGH JUNE 30TH, 2010

The license of station WHYY-TV has determined that the following issues were of importance to the Delaware Valley community during the past three months and has aired the following programs to address these issues:

1.Arts and Culture

On Canvas: Miguel Zenón

4/21/10 8:00 pm 30 minutes

The third season of the Emmy Award-winning WHYY-TV series continues with a performance by and interview with Miguel Zenón. Zenón's latest release, Esta Plena, bridges elements of jazz and plena music from Puerto Rico and was heralded as one of the best jazz releases of 2009 on the way to receiving two Grammy nominations. The On Canvas crew captured a performance by Zenón at The Painted Bride Arts Center in the Old City section of Philadelphia.

On Canvas: Paquito D'Rivera Quintet

4/28/10 8:00 pm 30 minutes

The third season of the Emmy Award-winning WHYY-TV series continues with a performance by and interview with Paquito D'Rivera Quintet. A multiple Grammy winner and National Medal for the Arts recipient, D'Rivera blurs the line between Afro-Latin jazz and classical music. The On Canvas crew captured a performance by the group at Montgomery County Community College in Blue Bell, Pa.

American Masters: "The Doors — When You're Strange"

5/12/10 10:00 pm 120 minutes

Wednesday, May 12, at 10 p.m. on WHYY-TV

The creative chemistry of four brilliant artists made The Doors one of America's most iconic and influential, theatrical and mysterious, thrilling and sometimes-frightening rock bands. The first feature documentary to tell their story, the film uses only original footage.

Les Misérables

5/23 /10

8:00 pm

120 minutes

The format of this popular 10th anniversary concert video of the international musical sensation Les Misérables is closer to that of a dramatic cantata rather than a fully staged production. The singers stand at their microphone stands with an orchestra and chorus behind them, but they do wear costumes and participate in some movement.

National Memorial Day Concert

5/30/10

8:00 pm

120 minutes

An all-star lineup of dignitaries, actors and musical artists, including Colin L. Powell, Lionel Richie, Brad Paisley and Katherine Jenkins, performs on the West Lawn of the U.S. Capitol in Washington, D.C.

6/2/10

8:30 pm

90 minutes

Wednesday, June 2, at 8:30 p.m. on WHYY-TV

This concert special starring Carole King and James Taylor was filmed at their 2007 performances celebrating the 50th anniversary of Los Angeles' famed Troubadour nightclub. At that club 40 years ago, Taylor urged King to emerge as an artist from behind her piano, a seminal moment in the history of these pop singer-songwriter icons.

Diane Warren: Love Songs

6/3/10

7:30 pm

120 minutes

Diane Warren's songs have sold more records than The Beatles, Elton John and Elvis Presley combined. Diane Warren: Love Songs features guest artists Gloria Estefan, Eric Benét, LeAnn Rimes and others performing some of Warren's biggest hits. The program is also the world premiere of Warren's new musical project Due Voci (Two Voices), featuring international singing sensations Kelly Levesque and Tyler Hamilton.

Straight No Chaser: Live in New York

6/9/10

8:30 pm

90 minutes

The a cappella phenomenon Straight No Chaser, whose quirky version of "The 12 Days of Christmas" was a YouTube.com sensation, provide a captivating and entertaining evening for all. The 10 male vocalists marry impeccable harmony with just the right amount of humor. This special presents a mix of classic hits from the '50s and '60s, the Motown era and contemporary pop hits.

2. Crime

FIRST

4/16/10 5:30 pm 30 minutes

Delaware saves the Valero refinery, and the economy is taking its toll on police departments. Plus, the Delaware Department of Agriculture is showing kids the real roots of the meat and veggies on their plates. And in "First Experience" we're talking about roller derby.

Masterpiece: "Foyle's War — The Russian House"

5/2/10 9:00 pm 120 minutes

In the war's aftermath, Hastings is a transit point for Russian POWs who changed sides to fight for the Nazis and now face an uncertain future. The war office assigns Foyle to track down one escapee, and the reason for his flight becomes shockingly clear.

3. Environment

DIRT! The Movie

4/22/10 9:00 pm 90 minutes

DIRT! The Movie delves into the fascinating history of this lowly substance, explaining how 4 billion years of evolution have created the dirt that recycles our water, gives us food, provides us shelter and can be used as a source of medicine, beauty and culture.

Our National Heritage: Episode I — The Revolutionary River

6/8/10 9:00 pm 90 minutes

Featuring dramatizations and interviews with historians, geologists and other experts, the film takes a detailed look at the history of the Schuylkill River region. It includes fascinating information about the Lenni Lenape tribes and early European settlers who once inhabited the region as well as a thought-provoking look at the pollution that once threatened the river and the environmental efforts that rescued it.

Nature: The Unnatural History of Chimpanzees

6/20/10 8:00 pm 60 minutes

Chimpanzees occupy a unique place in human society: We send them into space, give them starring roles in our movies and study them in hopes of better understanding our most frightening diseases. Yet, we rarely hear their side of the story. Chimpanzees: An Unnatural History will introduce you to the rescuers at sanctuaries who work to rehabilitate the often-traumatized animals.

Frontline: Troubled Water

6/29/10

9:00 pm

60 minutes

In 2005, FRONTLINE/World reported on the PlayPump, a breakthrough idea to harness the energy of children spinning a merry-go-round to pump drinking water for villages in southern Africa. After the broadcast, donors gave millions to expand the project. Now, reporter Amy Costello investigates how the promise of the PlayPump fell so short.

4. Health and ScienceFood, Inc.

4/21/10

10:00 pm

94 minutes
